Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. The local, womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseases of the delicate womanly organs are cured the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "worn-out," "run-down" or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or schoolroom, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proven a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving powers.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womanly organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Cures obstinate cases. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of "female weakness," painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the pelvic organs, weak back, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration.

Dr. Pierce's medicines are made from harmless but efficient medical roots found growing in our American forests. The Indians knew of the marvelous curative value of some of these roots and imparted that knowledge to some of the friendlier whites, and gradually some of the more progressive physicians came to test and use them, and ever since they have grown in favor by reason of their superior curative virtues and their safe and harmless qualities.

Your druggists sell the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alterative, blood purifier and stomach tonic, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

LABOR LEADERS INCENSED.

President Roosevelt was placed in his own Ananias club by the Moyer-Haywood conference committee at a meeting in Chicago last night.

Trade unionists who have heretofore been known principally because of their conversatism, swooped down upon the hall to the number of 300, and after practically ignoring the socialistic element that brought forth the now famous Jaxon letter from the President, framed and passed verbal resolutions branding Roosevelt as "A liar from top to bottom."

Immediately after the passage of these resolutions, George Koop, recent candidate for mayor, issued a call to all "undesirable citizens," bidding them to attend a meeting in Grant Park on the evening of May 19 to protest against the language used by Roosevelt in his classification of Charles H. Moyer, William D. Haywood, and Eugene V. Debs.

He asked that twenty-five grandstands be built in the park by the laboring men in order that 100,000 of the "undesirables" may be accommodated to listen to speakers.

Veiled charges of cowardice were hurled at the President by Eugene V. Debs, whose name was linked with that of Moyer and Haywood and Harriman in the Jaxon letters. He also charged Roosevelt with seeking to dodge the force of his former references to the men and quoted his speech at the laying of the corner-stone of the office building of the House of Representatives as proof that the Chief Executive held the officers of the Western Federation of Miners to be guilty of the charges lodged against them.

The plans of the special protest day in May will be laid in Milwaukee at a meeting of the Federation Trades' Council, to be held there on Sunday.

A plan to hold big demonstrations by labor unions throughout the country on an appointed day, on which to protest against the actions of President Roosevelt in the Haywood-Moyer incident, has been launched by labor leaders in Milwaukee. The plan is to set aside a day early in May, to suspend work that day, and hold big meetings, at which to file formal protests on the action of the President. It is also proposed to then take up funds with which to provide a stronger defense for the accused miners.

The labor leaders in Milwaukee are greatly incensed over the action of Roosevelt in reiterating what he said of the miners. The Jaxon letter has brought feeling to a boiling point, and James Sheehan, business agent of the Federated Trade Council, yesterday announced that he would urge his organization to ask all unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor to participate in a national demonstration and convince the President what organized labor thought of his utterance. The Trades' Council represents every union in Milwaukee, and at its next meeting resolutions denouncing Roosevelt will be passed. The State Federation of Labor already is on record in the matter.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Thaddeus Stevens Ross, of Oil City, Pa., was shot three times and instantly killed yesterday by Miss Belle Stroup. The woman then shot herself through the heart. The tragedy occurred in the office of Dr. George W. Magee while the physician was at lunch. Both victims were members of prominent families. Ross was to have been married last night at 9 o'clock to Miss Drusilla Sampsell, of Oil City. There were no witnesses to the shooting. The murderer and suicide was a former sweetheart of the dead man.

Ross was dining at home with his family, discussing the coming marriage ceremony, when the telephone rang. His father answered the call, and a woman's voice made inquiry for "Thad." Mr. Ross called his son, and the young man, after answering, picked up his hat and informed the family he had to go to the doctor's office for a few minutes, but would return as soon as he could. This was the last time his parents saw him alive.

Miss Stroup arrived in Oil City at noon from Bradford, where she had been employed in a hospital, and went directly to the office of Dr. Magee. Finding no one in the office she called Ross on the telephone and asked him to come to the office and see her. What took place there no one will ever know. It could not be ascertained from persons who were in the building at the time that any loud talking took place between them, or that they had quarreled.

When Dr. Magee returned from lunch and opened the door he found the dead bodies. In a chair in a corner of the office sat Ross, his head lying back on the chair and blood streaming from a bullet wound in his neck. His forehead was burned with powder where a bullet entered his brain. Another ball had pierced his heart. Miss Stroup was lying a few feet away, face downward, where her body partly blocked the office door. Blood was flowing from a wound in her left side. Miss Stroup was born in Venango county 28 years ago. Both her parents are dead.

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poison enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package.

For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by E. S Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 25, 1907.

THE dignity of American naval officers is safe. An official cablegram from the Haitien government to Secretary of State Root yesterday brought word that the negro republic would not be able to send to the Jamestown Exposition its sole vice admiral, who would have outranked not only Rear Admiral "Bob" Evans, but every other naval officer from every nation which will be represented by war ships in Hampton Roads. Haiti owns no warships, so, when the thought of sending a representation arose, a delicate hint was conveyed to Washington that it would be a friendly act from a big nation toward a little one to provide the vice admiral with one of the old ships which are laid up in some of the navy yards along the coast. It was promised that, when the show at Jamestown was over, the war ship would be returned and that the vice admiral would return on one of the fruit steamers running to Haitien ports—probably as a member of the crew. Secretary Root diplomatically replied that the United States had no warships to lend, and, sensibly suggested that, as Jamestown was south of Mason and Dixon's line, there might be some occurrences which would spoil the vice admiral's pleasure. Yesterday's cablegram closed the incident. However, it will give the army officers something to think about, for it is said that three high officers of the Haitien army would represent their country at the exposition.

DIPLOMATIC and governmental circles in London are greatly interested in the report from Madrid that the outcome of the recent meeting of King Edward and King Alfonso of Spain at Cartagena is an entente cordiale between the two nations, almost as broad in its scope as an alliance. An agreement was reached between the two monarchs, it is said, on all points of interest between the two nations and diplomatists are now busy putting it into written form. The agreement marks England's complete victory in the competition she has been engaged in with Germany for an understanding with Spain. In effect the entente is said to allow the use of Spanish naval ports by the British fleet and England in returns guarantees to assist Spain in the conversion of her existing debt. The British squadrons will protect Spain's coasts in times of necessity and arrangements are made for either nation's land and naval forces to be placed at the disposal of the other. Spain's rights in Morrocco are recognized by Great Britain and the latter will support Alfonso in any Moroccan policy undertaking. Spain is to strengthen her navy and construct improved dry docks.

THE SPECTACLE of one of the two richest men in the country praising the other for his manner of giving is presented in the letter sent by Mr. John D. Rockefeller to Mr. Andrew Carnegie, complimenting him on his speech at the Pittsburg dedication last week. The letter was inspired by Mr. Carnegie disclaiming credit for his $23,000,000 gift. Said Mr. Rockefeller: "It has the right ring. I am with you. You have my best wishes for the success of all your grand efforts to help your fellow-men. I hope and trust that our prosperous men the country over will be stimulated to emulate your noble example." To this Mr. Carnegie replied: "Many thanks, fellow-worker in the task of distributing surplus wealth for the good of others. I clasp your hand. Your congratulations are highly valued."

ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL HITCHCOCK, who returned to Washington from the South yesterday, denied that the President sent him on a political mission—but he blandly added, the republicans of Georgia, South Carolina and Florida are all Roosevelt men! Still he did not go on a political mission—why, of course not.

From Washington.

Washington, April 25.

For an hour today the President talked with Senator Penrose, the "unfriend" who is supposed to have given away at a dinner the alleged "rich men's conspiracy" to defeat the selection of Roosevelt for a third term or of a man of his type as his successor. Secretary Loeb, who figures in the case as having told the President of what Penrose said at the dinner, was present during a part of the interview. So interesting did the conversation prove that such men as Secretary Root was left standing in the ante-room. "Just a social call," said Senator Penrose, when he left the President's office. "Did you explain to the President why the Pennsylvania legislature did not endorse Roosevelt for a third term? he was asked by about twenty newspaper men who gathered at the White House, "I did not." "Don't you think that needed explanation?" "I did not." "What do you think about the third term?" "I don't think. He said that he had had a very pleasant call, but insisted that he could not discuss what he had talked about with the President. The newspaper men presisted in getting an expression from the Pennsylvania Senator, walking through the White House grounds with him. "I thank you for the honor of walking with me, but I haven't a word to day. Good-bye."

A change has been made in the President's plan for his visit to Jamestown, so that he can stay two days instead of one. In addition to his attendance at the opening exercises tomorrow, he will remain aboard the Mayflower in Hampton Roads Friday night, and Saturday morning he will board the Sylph for a trip up the James river to the original settlement at Jamestown island. Returning to the Mayflower Saturday afternoon, the presidential party will start for Washington Saturday evening.

A general Central American peace conference is to be held in Nicaragua, as a result of the peace treaty just signed between Nicaragua and Salvador at Amapala, according to a dispatch received by Phil Brown, secretary of the American legation at Guatemala and Honduras.

The dismissal of Second Lieutenant Morris C. Foote from the army was announced today. He had been found guilty in Havana of failing to pay his debts. He entered the service from the District of Columbia.

Secretary Wilson announced today that he will be in Chicago on May 6 and 7 when he will confer with his superintendents who are at the head of the Department Inspectors in the Chicago packing houses.

Four cities are already in the contest for the honor of entertaining the next national republican convention—Kansas City, Chicago, St. Louis and Seattle.

Secretary Wilson today created a "board of food and drug inspection" which will have jurisdiction of all matters pretaining to the enforcement of pure food law. Dr. W. H. Wiley is chairman.

LOVING'S DEED IS DENOUNCED.

Friends of the Estes family, of Nelson county, of which Theodore Estes, who was shot and killed Monday by Judge W. G. Loving for the alleged mistreatment of his daughter, was a member, express the opinion that there was no ground for Judge Loving thinking that Estes had wronged and drugged the young woman during the drive Sunday evening.

They claim Estes gave the young lady a drink of liquor from a small flask which he had in his pocket, and the impression is she was intoxicated, and nothing more. Indeed, the fact that Estes went about his work the following day, and the claim that he called at the home where he left the girl at night the following morning to accompany her to her home, though she did not go with him, gives rise to a growing belief in Nelson county, that Judge Loving must have been mistaken in his opinion. However, that he believed his daughter had been wronged is evidenced by the manner in which he sought out and killed the man.

A report from Lovingston, the home of the Estes family, is to the effect that there is a bitter feeling there against Judge Loving.

The funeral of Estes took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of the parents of the deceased, in Lovingston.

Nearly a thousand persons were present at the home and at the grave. A brief funeral service was conducted at the residence by Rev. H. F. B. Martin, of the Methodist Church, and the committal service was conducted by the Lovingston Lodge of Odd Fellows.

A statement made yesterday by J. M. Shipman, a well-known resident of Nelson county, regarding the shooting, differs from previous accounts. He states that Miss Elizabeth Loving spent Sunday afternoon at the home of E. L. Kidd, clerk of Nelson county, as the guest of his daughter, and that Estes, at the request of Miss Kidd, took Miss Loving out driving, returning to Lovingston before dark. Miss Loving had been sick and was given a drink of whisky. Upon her return from the drive a physician was sent for. Miss Loving spent the night at Mr. Kidd's and next morning E- proposed to take her home, but she preferred to wait, and her mother took her home at 11 o'clock. Mr. Shipman claims that Judge Loving admitted that at the car he had demanded an explanation from Estes, but did not wait for a reply, and that he shot before Estes could answer.

Sunday Schools Discussed.

At yesterday afternoon's session in Danville of the Viginia State Sunday School Association the following officers were elected: President, R. H. Beasley; vice presidents, H. O. Marchant, of Charlottesville; William Holmes Davis, of Danville; J. R. Flippo, of Roanoke; J. H. Hoge Taylor, of Radford; Rev. E. D. Rendig, of Stewartsdraft; Rev. H. R. Atkins, of Richmond; Rev. W. A. Relsor, of Norfolk; James A. Bell, of Staunton; Dr. M. E. Church, of Fairfax county, and Rev. W. W. Staley, of Suffolk.

Supposed Incendiary Fire.

New York, April 25.—A fire believed to have been started by incendiaries with the object of robbery early today endangered the lives of 100 tenants of a five-story tenement in east One Hundred and Fifty-Sixth street and resulted in the injury of three person. Scores of the occupants had narrow escapes from death. Daring rescues by several policemen prevented any fatalities. Italians who infest the neighborhood are believed to have started the fire in the hope that in the excitement they could rob the apartment of Carl Modes, an aged recluse, reported to be rich, who lived in the house.

The American Magazine for May, which has been received from its publishers in New York, is one of the best issues of this magazine. In "Following the Color Line" Ray Stannard Baker reports facts about the increasing antagonism between whites and blacks in this country. District Attorney Train's report of "The Patrick Case Complete" is really a great murder story. Miss Tarbell's history of the tariff reaches the early 80's. A character sketch of Oscar Hammerstein is contributed, as is another "Adventure in Contentment." Marion Crawford's serial grows in interest, and the short stories are clever, and by well-known writers.

Everybody's Magazine for May, which has been received from its publishers in New York, is full of good reading. In its leading article, Brand Whitlock, in attacking our prison system, asks, "What good does it do?" Leroy Scott describes his recent sojourn among the Russian terrorists. Ernest Thompson Seton contributes one of his animal studies, and the career of George Westinghouse is the second of the "Romances of Success." "Modern Masters of Music" and "The Players" are most readable articles. The fiction of this issue is of unusual excellence, consisting of nine short stories and an instalment of Lloyd Osburne's serial.

News of the Day.

News of the signing of a peace pact between Salvador and Nicaragua was received in Washington yesterday.

State Senator Jonathan F. Leaming burned, with his daughter, in the fire of their home at Cape May, N. J., on Monday, died today from his burns. The daughter died Tuesday.

Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, left today to attend the formal opening of the Jamestown Exposition. He will tonight attend the reception and banquet given by Governor Swanson of Virginia.

The dormitories of the Haverford Grammar School at Philadelphia which replaced those recently burned, were destroyed by fire, today, together with all their furniture. The occupants escaped.

It is stated that all the dairies shipping milk or cream into Washington will be required by the health authorities of the District of Columbia to show a clean bill of health, especially as to tuberculosis.

The Norwegian steamer Universe, plying between New York and Luisburg, C. B., went ashore near Canso early today, and fears are entertained that she will be a total loss. Tugs have been sent to her aid.

Arthbishop James Hubert Blenk, of New Orleans, was solemnly invested with the pallium yesterday by Cardinal Gibbons as the representative of Pope Pius X. Cardinal Gibbons told of his own share in the election of the present Pope.

A photograph and a letter pinned close to her heart revealed today how swift, sure, complete and carefully planned was the vengeance of Mahala Belle Strope, who arose from a sick bed in Bradford, Pa., yesterday, went to Oil City, killed Thaddeus S. Ross, and ended her own life because she learned Ross was to marry another.

It is reported that the Southern Railway Company will, at an early date, erect its own locomotive works at Spencer, N. C., and otherwise greatly enlarge the plant there. It is estimated that the cost of new buildings will be $500,000 or more, and that every piece of machinery needed by a railroad will be turned out at Spencer.

Virginia News.

In Pittsylvania Circuit Court yesterday John Welcher, convicted of unlawful shooting, was sentenced to one minute in jail and to pay a fine of $35.

Mr. William Taylor, a prominent farmer and Confederate soldier of King George, died at his home, "Powhatan," in that county, Tuesday evening at an advanced age.

The Loudoun democratic committee has settled upon June 13th as the date for the primary to select the nominees for the different county officers to be elected next fall.

John T. Parham, aged sixty-five years, a Confederate veteran, who was a color guard for his regiment in Pickett's charge at Gettysburg, committed suicide in Petersburg yesterday by shooting himself in the head.

The no-license advocates carried the town of Leesburg at the election on Friday last by the most decisive majority in the history of the town, and the vote was the largest ever polled at a corporation election in Leesburg.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant, this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: Sidney J. Barnhouse, Alexandria, safety-clutch for air-brake angle-cocks; Claude B. Davis and A. T. Finch, Chase City, bottle; Thomas H. Harris, Fredericksburg, cash register; Henry W. Rountree, Richmond, trunk; Frank W. Wood, Newport News, means for preventing sparking; Thomas J. Younglove, Richmond, three patents for door-checks.

A thousand dollars' worth of oil paintings, engravings, gold frames and other art sundries went up in smoke from a fire which occurred early yesterday at Young's art store on north Seventh street, Richmond. Several persons had narrow escapes from death in the burning building. The loss is covered by insurance. The greatest item of the loss were two portraits and a large number of old steel engravings. The portraits were painted by William L. Shepherd and had been sent to the store for framing. One was that of John Randolph, of Roanoke, and the other of John Stewart.

Investigation has shown that John Daniels, Will Sproggins, and Ada Moore, the three negroes found dead Monday in the servants' room at the home of Rev. W. H. Atwell, at Danville, died from poison, the exact nature of which has not yet been determined. Lillie McCain, who also was in the party, died late last night at the hospital, without regaining consciousness. The police are hunting for Sam Moore, the husband of Ada Moore, from whom he has been separated for some time. Moore returned recently from Baltimore, and it is supposed was jealous of the attentions Daniels was paying Ada Moore. The police suspect that Moore was the host, as the drinking party was in his wife's room, during which four of the party were poisoned. He has disappeared.

LETTER TO NORTON & BOOTHE.

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sirs: We should like to print your opinion of this guarantee in this paper, where all your neighbors will see it:

We'll furnish the paint to paint half the house of any fair man on these terms: He shall paint the other half with whatever other paint he likes; same painter (any fair man) same way (the way of all fair painters, to make a good job.) If our half doesn't take less gallons of paint by one-tenth to seven-tenths, we'll give him the paint. If our half doesn't take less labor by one-tenth to seven-tenths, we'll give him the paint. If our half isn't sounder three years hence, we'll give him the paint. If our half isn't sounder six years hence, we'll give him the paint. Any color.

We say one tenth, because there are two or three paints with about that difference; we say seven—there are dozens of paints with about that difference—we say one to seven, because there's a hundred that waste one-third of the money paid for both paint and labor.

Is there a paint we haven't covered?

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & Co.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

JAMESTOWN.

There are stupendous tasks yet to be accomplished by tomorrow and it is still hoped to have things in such shape that the opening of the Jamestown Exposition will prove highly successful, but the possible lack of light and power for the great electrical display scheduled for the evening of the opening is staring the management in the face.

It is possible that the great electrical display on land for the opening evening will have to be greatly cut, though the electrical efferts aboard the many war ships lying in Hampton Roads, off the exposition grounds, will likely be carried through to success. Even though these unfortunate conditions exist, the opening-day ceremonies will be resplendent with grandeur in many particulars that could not here be described.

The magnificence of the exposition as a whole, even in its incompleted state, is bound to attract, and even though visitors will find the fair unfinished, they will be compelled to laud the management for what has already been accomplished. The fact that the fair is unfinished will be overlooked by thousands attracted by the splendor of the war ships lying in Hampton Roads.

At the general offices of the Jamestown Exposition Company it is announced that the delayed blower needed to complete the transfer electrical station on the exposition grounds can be turned on and tested out today. Upon the completion of this transformer station depends the question of lights for the opening night.

It is declared that the 20,000 incandescent lights which are to illuminate the buildings will be all right, and there will be light in abundance for the government and general exhibit buildings to be opened, and for such concessions on the War Path as will be ready.

The electrical display on land will be a most attractive feature of the exposition. Even the incomplete buildings have been wired, and vari-colored incandescent bulbs and arc lights put in position, so that on Friday night, should the power be sufficient, there will be no defects to mar the beauties of the scheme. In addition to the displays on the buildings, which are arranged to show novel figures and set forth the architectural lines of the palaces, the boardwalk, the street, the Lee Parade, and all other parts of the exposition reservations will be so lighted as to carry out a general plan that will be entirely harmonious.

White standards, about five feet high, arranged symmetrically, have been set up, and on top of these have been placed clusters of electric lamps. This system takes in every division of the grounds, and the lamps are placed so close together that it is said that at night the grounds will rival daylight, even without the aid of hundreds of acres and many electrical fountains. Flagstaffs have been placed on all the buildings, even those that are not nearly finished. Each of these will bear its flag on the opening day and all will be released, to be caught by the ocean breezes when President Roosevelt presses the button to start the exposition machinery.

Since Tuesday the German cruiser Roon, the German cruiser Bremen, and the Argentine republic cruiser President Sarmiento, have joined the fleet, together with the monitor Miantonomah, and the old Canonicus.

She has a coat of black paint to distinguish her from the modern monitors, and with close inspection can still be seen in her turrets dents made by Confederate shells during the civil war.

The arrival of Lieut. Gov. Chanler, of New York, will be quickly followed by the arrival of Gov. Higgins, of Rhode Island and Gov. Woodruff, of Connecticut, together with Rhode Island and Connecticut State officials, who will be there for the opening on Friday.

Gov. Stewart, of Pennsylvania, will arrive to-night. The governors of North Caroline, Vermont, and South Carolina will also reach the grounds today.

Gov. Swanson, of Virginia, will be there today, and Gov. Warfield and the Maryland contingent will arrive on Friday morning by special boats from Baltimore.

At dawn Friday morning the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues will usher in the day by a salute of 300 guns. This will notify the thousands of people who have came from all over the country that the time has arrived for the formal opening of the Exposition.

When at noon the President presses the button on the reviewing stand, the signal will be given for the unfurling of thousands of flags and the entire machinery of the Exposition will be set in motion. At the same moment the ships that now dot the waters of Hampton Roads, representing the navies of the world, will fire a salute. The booming of these will be answered by the roaring of the cannon at Fort Monroe. The American fleet of 25 battleships and armored cruisers, headed by Admiral Evans' flagship, stretches in a huge semi-circle across the harbor. By Friday morning men-of-war from Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria, Brazil and Japan will be gathered there. As the President touches the button each of the warships will fire 21 guns. The bands upon the Exposition grounds will strike up "The Star-Spangled Banner. The President and his party, on the Mayflower, are expected to reach Hampton Roads before 8 o'clock. As soon as the Mayflower is sighted the firing of the presidential salute of 21 guns will be begun.

Following this salute, the President will pass down the line of the warships, reviewing the combined American and foreign fleets. This naval review will occur before the presidential party has disembarked. They will be received at "Discovery Landing," on the exposition grounds, with due ceremony, and from there escorted by a military detachment to the reviewing stand. Here will take place the exercises marking the opening of the Exposition, which will include addresses by President Roosevelt and by Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Exposition company and the man to whom much of the success that now seems certain for the big show is due.

Another big feature of the day will be the military parade and review which will follow the opening exercises.

The military features of the Exposition are under the direct management of Gen. Fred D. Grant.

Today's Telegraphic News

Baroness de Massey's Trial.

New York, April 25.—The circumstantial evidence so far adduced to prove her guilty of the murder of Gustave Simon, the wealthy shirt waist manufacturer, has not disturbed the Baroness Ahlsia Louise de Massey, the French woman now on trial for her life. When her trial was resumed today the State had only shown that she was present in Simon's establishment when the fatal shots were fired, and that she had demanded of the manufacturer her wages for a single week's work. The indifference manifested by the baroness and her counsel has strengthened the belief that the defense has some big surprise to spring on Prosecutor Ely at the proper moment.

It is generally believed that the plan is to show that a man was concealed in the office and fired the shots after the baroness left, hoping she would be accused of the murder and knowing of her dispute with Simon over her wages. Copious notes were made by the baroness of all witnesses against her and she counselled with her attorney frequently in the cross-examination of witnesses. An important point gained by the defense was the admission made by Dr. Weston, the coroner's physician, who examined Simon when he appeared as a witness for the prosecution, that Simon's wound might have been self inflicted.

Mr. Ryan.

Richmond, Va., April 25.—Information obtained today from "inside the State democratic organization," apparently confirms the report that Thomas F. Ryan is engaged in a systematic effort to send himself to the Senate as a representative of Virginia.

His activity in party politics and organization work recently is not denied. Big contributions with which fences are being built and lines tightened, are traced to him. He has long maintained a residence at Oak Ridge, Nelson county, and prides himself upon being a Virginian.

With the possibility of a democratic government it is pointed out that a seat in the Senate would be extremely desirable to the Wall street magnate. Virginia traditions would be outraged by an open "purchase" of the seat, but Ryan has many friends and his activity is under the surface so far.

Death of Dennis Kearney.

San Francisco, April 25.—Dennis Kearney, the celebrated "sand lot" orator, died at his home in Alameda, last night. Kearney was born in Oak Mount, Ireland, and came to America when eleven years old. He arrived in San Francisco in 1868, and was captain of one of the largest vessels in the foreign trade at the age of 19. In 1875 he began an agitation among the laboring element which resulted in the passage of the Geary act, which exludes Chinese labor. His speeches attracted more attention, possibly because of their violence, than anything else. He was a man of little education. On one occasion he served forty days in jail for a speech. In 1878 Kearney organized a party known as the workingmen's party, which achieved its first victory at the polls the same year.

Attempt to rob Southern Railway Train.

Englis, Ind., April 25.—While attempting to arrest one of four men suspected of an attempt to stop and rob a Southern passenger train, early today, Marshall W. E. Cummings was shot through the bowels and probably fatally wounded. One of the four men was taken into custody by a section hand, and is in jail here. The others got away and are being pursued by a posse with blooohounds. As part of the plan, the bridge near Temple, Ind., had been set on fire and the four were lying in wait, evidently for the purpose of robbery had the train been wrecked.

Uprising Checked.

Tokio, April 25.—Prompt steps have been taken by the Japanese authorities in Korea to checkmate plans for an intended uprising there. It is believed the early discovery of the plot and the steps which have been taken to prevent any outbreak have prevented it for the time being at least. It is said the conspirators planned an uprising on an extensive scale. The suzerainty exercised by Japan over Korea has been galling to many natives of the peninsula who hoped to drive out the Japanese. It is regarded as extremely probable that steps will be taken to placate dissatisfied Koreans in order to avoid further plots.

Hopes of Home Rule.

London, April 25.—Irish well-wishers who have for years entertained hopes of home rule for the Emerald Isle, are today happy over the announcement of Augustin Birrell, secretary for Ireland, that he expects to be able to introduce a bill in parliament providing for an Irish council by May 7. While the council will not bring complete home rule to Ireland leaders of the Irish party believe it will be a big step in that direction, and they are pleased that the liberal ministry is carrying out its pledges to go as far as possible toward giving home rule.

Pugilist Suspected of Murder.

London, April 25.—The arrest of Peddler Palmer, the English pugilist, on suspicion of being implicated with a companion in the murder of an unknown man while returning from the Epsom races, has aroused great interest in sporting circles, throughout England. The body of the stranger was found in a car in which Palmer and his compasion had been passengers. Death appeared to have been caused by heavy blows. Passengers in an adjoining car declared they had heard sounds of a violent quarrel.

Forgery Charged.

Boston, April 25.—Forgery is the latest count in the indictment the plaintiffs in the Mrs. Eddy case have drawn against the leaders of the Christian Science Church. Forgery on a wholesale scale, they charge, has been practiced by those in control of Mrs. Eddy for the purpose partly of concealing from the world her growing weakness. More than 100 letters from among the documentery evidence gathered by the plaintiffs have already been examined by handwriting experts.

John Mitchell's Condition.

Chicago, April 25.—The condition of John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, was said today to be slightly improved. He passed a fairly restful night and Dr. McCleary said today he did not consider the illness of his patient as being very alarming.

Debs Assails the President.

Girard, Ks., April 25.—Eugene V. Debs today reasserted that President Roosevelt declared and repeated that "Moyer and Haywood were implicated in murder, pronouncing their guilt in unmistakeable words," before their trial. In reply to the President's letter to Chicago labor organizations, Debs said: "The President is guilty of a most extraordinary lapse of memory or a deliberate falsehood. He now claims that he never said anything concerning the guilt of Moyer and Haywood. I quote from his speech of April 14, 1906, where he declared. "The wealthy man is no better than the so-called labor leader who clamorously strives to excite foul class feeling on behalf of some other labor leader who is implicated in murder. I now challenge President Roosevelt to deny that he meant Moyer and Haywood in his charge of murder of a year ago. If he will not name whom he meant, he must stand branded from his own mouth with calumny and mendacity."

Arrival of Foreign Men-of-War.

Norfolk, Va., April 25.—The Austrian cruisers Sankt Gorge and Aspern and the English fleet, composed of the armored cruisers Good Hope, Hampshire, Roxburgh and Argyle, arrived in Hampton Roads today to participate in the opening of the Jamestown Exposition tomorrow. They were greeted by the powerful Atlantic fleet, composed of 15 battleships, three armored cruisers, a second class battleship, several protected cruisers, two flotillas of torpedo boats and numerous auxiliaries. As the foreign fleets in turn approached Fort Monroe the flagship of each belched forth a salute to the flag flying over the fort. As the salute was returned the visitors passed on to salute the flag of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans.

Accident to a Prince.

Berlin, April 25.—Prince Eitel Fritz, Kaiser William's second son, was thrown from his horse today while participating in the military manoeuvers on Doeberitz Plain near Potsdam and sustained a slight concussion of the brain. The prince was also badly bruised and otherwise injured. He was at once hurried to his residence in Potsdam, where his young wife is attending him.

Fire at Summer Resort.

Northampton, Mass., April 25.—The settlement at Lake Peasant a well-known summer resort near Greenfied, was practically destroyed by fire this morning. One hundred and fifteen buildings including the hotel were burned, with a loss estimated at from $115,000 to $120,000. The fire started in a small cottage from the explosion of a lamp.

Jury Discharged.

Lexington, Ky., April 25.—The jury in the case of William Britton, charged with the murder of James Cockrill, was discharged at noon. It voted eight for acquittal and four for conviction, and the foreman declared there was no probability of an agreement. The attorneys for Britton will make application for bail. He has been in jail for three years.

"Gentleman Burglar" Escapes.

Peoria, Ills., April 25.—"Eddie" Tate, the Chicago "gentleman burglar," who has confessed to complicity in the Peoria school board safe robbery last January and who incriminated prominent citizens of Peoria in his confession, escaped last night from St. Francis' Hospital, where he had been taken on account of illness, after his recent arrest.

Suspected Murderer Dismissed.

Dover, Del., April 25.—Frank H. Butler, arrested and held under suspicion of having accidently killed Horace Marvin, jr., was released from custody at 10:50 this morning, for want of sufficient evidence to hold him.

Earthquake Shocks in Italy.

Rome, April 25.—Sharp earthquake shocks are reported to have been felt today in Verona and northern Italy. People living in the neighborhood are in a panic.

Mr. Bryan Hurled from a Carriage.

Morrisville, Vermont, April 25.—William J. Bryan, was hurled from his carriage in a runaway today while being driven to St. Johnsbury railway station. The driver lost control of the team which dashed at full speed directly toward the station building. The man threw his weight on the reins and pulled the horse into a sudden turn, which sent the Nebraskan flying through the air into a crowd that was waiting there to greet him. Half a dozen men caught the statesman and after getting his breath. He delivered a short address.

Application Denied.

New York, April 25.—Permission to examine the minutes of the grand jury which returned indictments charging them with manslaughter in the second degree, as the result of the wreck of the Brewster Express in which twenty-four persons lost their lives, was today denied Albert H Smith and Ira McCormick, two officials of the New York Central Railroad. The application was based on the ground that the two officials had been permitted to violate their constitutional right in offering testimony to the grand jury which resulted in their own indictment.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 25.—Traders fought for a rally in the early part of the first hour, and were successful in causing a moderate upturn in the early trading, advances being made in the most active shares, ranging from frictions up to about one point. The most activity and strength on that movement was in Reading. Before the end of the first hour a general decline started, which carried prices down from the high range from 1-2 to 1 1-2 points.

DIED.

At Pleasant Valley, Rockingham county, Virginia, Wednesday, April 24, 1907, HALLIE RAMSAY, infant daughter of Dr. Clement Ellis and Hallie B. Conger, aged twelve days.

YARMOUTH BLOATERS just received by J. C. MILBURN.

Speaking in the County.

A large meeting of the residents of the county gathered in the Alexandria county courthouse last night to hear speeches by the candidates for the democratic nomination for Congress from the Eighth district of Virginia. Mr. R. C. L. Moncure presided and introduced the speakers, and Mr. Harry Thomas acted as secretary.

But two of candidates, Judge C. E. Nicol, of Prince William county, and Mr. R. Lindsey Gordon, of Louisa county, were present. Mr. Moncure explained that Messrs. C. C. Carlin, of Alexandria, and John F. Ryan, of Loudoun county, had made previous engagements to address meetings in other sections of the district, but that they would appear before the people of Alexandria county at the earliest possible date.

Mr. Gordon made the opening speech. He said he was without political experience with the exception of his service in the recent State constitutional convention and as Commonwealth's Attorney of Louisa county. He defended his record in the constitutional convention, which, he said, had been assailed by Judge Nicol. The point of criticism, it was explained, was Mr. Gordon's action in voting to proclaim the State organic law without submitting it to the people, although instructed by his constituents in favor of the latter course. Mr. Gordon gave as his reason for voting the way he did that in his opinion the purpose of the convention would have been imperiled by submitting its work to an unabridged electorate. He believed his action to be in the interests of the desire and intelligence of the State. The speaker denied that he was "the orator in the campaign," which, he said, he had been termed. To disprove that, he added, was one of the motives which brought him to the courthouse. He assured his hearers of his being a business man, with business ideas of the duties of a representative. Mr. Gordon paid his respects, incidentally, to President Roosevelt, declaring that he had shown many tendencies to sound democratic principles. He criticised Judge Nicol's advocacy of the sale of the Philippine Islands. The problem of those possessions, he said, should be settled by conferring free government upon the Filipinos. He devoted some time to the road question, and declared himself opposed to the government turning money for road improvements over to the States, but expressed the opinion that it would be better for the government to improve the roads and allow the States to retain the title to the ground.

In opening his address Judge Nicol referred to his long and intimate relationship with the people of Alexandria, while he was judge of the Circuit Court. He declared that the friendship and affection between him and the citizens of Alexandria county is one of his most cherished possessions. He discussed the subject of the sale of liquor in Alexandria county, a subject, he said, of greater importance to the people there than the question of who shall represent the district in Congress. He referred to his action as judge in refusing to grant any liquor licenses in the county, being persuaded that the local conditions, relating principally to the easy access of the county to undesirable classes from Washington, made the sale of intoxicants against public policy in the county. To show that material interests had not suffered by the change, Judge Nicol asserted that since then there had been an increase of from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 in taxable values in the county. He hoped that should there be an effort to restore saloons in the county, the best element of the people would rise in their might against it. The speaker denied that as judge he had ever refused application for license to sell liquor, when, under the law, it was proper to grant such request. He said he would speak plainly, even though he gave offense to saloon interests. If he depended upon them for his election, he added, he would be in despair.

Judge Nicol then took up the defense of his formal platform, which had been assailed by Mr. Gordon on the ground that it lacked definite expression on vital questions involved in the campaign. To contradict this, he rehearsed sections of his declaration, discussing railroad and trust legislation, the income tax law, the support of schools, the improvement and maintenance of good roads, the Philippine question, and several others. He hoped that the time would come when the best solution of the Philippine problem would be to give the people their independence, under the fostering care of this country. He asserted that he was the only one of the candidates who had given the voters of the district a specific declaration of his views on public questions. He expressed himself in favor of national appropriations for State roads, the money to be turned over to the State, so as to keep the thoroughfares distinctly free from federal control. Explaining his position on the proposed income tax, he said he favors a tax on incomes exceeding $5,000.

After both candidates had spoken, calls came from all parts of the room for Andrew A. Lipscomb, who responded in a brief address in which he complimented both Judge Nicol and Mr. Gordon.

Virginia Eagles Elect Officers.

The second annual convention of the State Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held a night session in Staunton Tuesday night and adjourned to meet in Richmond May 4, 1908, after electing the following officers: P. T. Murphy, Richmond, Past S. W., president; L. E. Bloodell, Norfolk, S. W. president; Carter Braxton, Staunton, S. W., vice president; Dr. Lewis Loeb, Newport News, S. W. chaplain; George Henhoeffer, Newport News, State secretary; C. B. MacKimmis, Norfolk, treasurer; J. W. Carmody, Richmond, S. W. conductor; F. C. Jesser, Covington, inside guard; J. B. Graves, Clifton Forge, outside guard.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:08 a. m. and sets at 6:47 p. m. High water at 6:11 a. m. and 6:38 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section partly cloudy tonight and Friday, colder Friday; fresh west to northwest winds.

Private and naval vessels left Washington today for old Point Comfort and Norfolk carrying many officials to participate in the opening exercises of the Jamestown Exposition.

With the exception of the Jamestown, the daylight boat of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, which landed at this port about 8:30 on her way down this morning carrying the congressional party, the President's yacht, the Mayflower, was among the first to start for Hampton Roads.

The President and his party passed here at 3:50 o'clock, escorted by two gunboats and a revenue cutter. The yacht will reach its destination at an early hour tomorrow morning.

Secretary Metcalf and a number of his personal friends embarked on the dispatch boat Dolphin. In this party were a few naval officials and Congressmen.

The members of the government commission and their guests, which includes the diplomatic corps, will be taken to Jamestown on the steamer Newport News, leaving its wharf at 5:45 o'clock this evening.

Many Alexandrians were on the lookout for the steamers as they passed this city.

Birthday Party.

Master Francis Edgar Johnston yesterday evening very prettily entertained a number of his friends at a Foxy Grandpa party given at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Johnston, No. 417 Prince street. The tables were beautifully set, in the centre being a large birthday cake in which were burning ten candles—one for each year of the host's life. The color scheme was green and pink and the decorations were wreathes and bridesmaid roses. The winners of the prizes were Miss Frances Smoot and Master Emmett Dunn, while Miss Sarah Cox was awarded the booby prize. Those present were: Misses Frances Smoot, Harriet Love, Sarah Cox, Marian Fletcher, Nina Fulton, Colins Jones, Carolina Leadbeater, Julie Cochran, and Masters Edward Kemper, Emmett Dunn, James Reid, E. Ansley, Wilfred Robinson, Clarence Robinson, Robert Bitzer, Wesley Bitzer, Marshall Thompson, Charles Thompson, Johnson McGuire, John Leadbeater, Lawrence Fawcett, Ashby Warfield, Gilbert Cox, Louis Barley, Thomas Wattles, Richard Green, George Cochran and Clinton Smoot.

Weddings.

Miss Marie Louise Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phelps Williams, of Washington, and Mr. Washington Booth Bowie, the youngest son of the late Governor Bowie, of Maryland, were married yesterday evening at 8 o'clock at St. John's Church, Georgetown. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Fred B. Hammond. The bride was attended by Miss Helen Williams, her sister, as maid of honor, and the following bridesmaids: Miss Julia Lippitt, of Virginia; Miss Emily Fitch and Miss Julia Smith, of Baltimore, and Miss Alice Olen Roberts, of Prince Georges county.

Miss Lillian R. Bell, daughter of Mr. Charles W. Bell, and Mr. Frank T. Mander, both of this city, were married yesterday evening at the parsonage of the Second Presbyterian Church, by Rev. Joseph R. Sevier. Later Mr. and Mrs. Mander left on the Norfolk steamer for a southern bridal trip.

Police Court.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Two young men, arrested by Officers Beach and Nicholson charged with disposing of brass belonging to the Southern Railway Company, were fined $10 each.

Hays Jackson and Benjamin Hington, both colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $2.50 each.

Washington Lockie, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with drunkenness, was sentenced to the chain gang for 30 days. Judgment was suspended for two hours provided the accused would leave the city.

A man and a woman, arrested by Officers Knight and Garvey charged with improper conduct, were dismissed.

Will Not be a Candidate.

Mr. Henry Strauss announces that he will not be a candidate for Mayor of this city at the democratic primary election one year hence. He says he filled the position two terms, and appreciates the political honors bestowed upon him in past years, as well as the continued confidence manifested in him by calling upon him to represent his ward in the Common Council. Mr. Strauss has been a public man for a third of a century, having been Councilman, Alderman, Mayor, Police Commissioner, School Trustee &c., during all these years. In declining to enter the contest for Mayor he says he appreciates the proffered support of his many friends, but for reasons satisfactory to himself he cannot comply with their wishes.

Anniversary Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Church of the Covenant was held last night in Richmond in the chapel at Park avenue and Harrison street. The pastor, Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, D. D., presided. The meeting was held on the anniversary of the nineteenth year of the pastorate of Dr. Stewart.

The reports submitted at the meeting show the Church of the Covenant to be in a flourishing condition. [Rev. Dr. Stewart is a native of this city, he being a son of the late John W. Stewart.]

Fell Down Steps.

Mrs. Margaret Fisher, an elderly lady, grandmother of Mrs. Arthur King, fell down a staircase at the residence of the latter on south Patrick street early last night and was painfully injured. Mrs. Fisher was carrying a pitcher in one of her hands at the time, and in her fall it was broken, and pieces of the pitcher cut one of her wrists.

Personal.

Miss Sallie Stuart, of Alexandria, addressed a large company of ladies in the Sunday school room of Grace Episcopal Church Tuesday afternoon, her subject being the work of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions of the Episcopal Church, of which she is the Virginia president. Miss Stuart dwelt at length on the purpose of the auxiliary and the splendid results of its work. Then she gave a detailed and most interesting description of a trip to Alaska last summer. She delighted her audience with her vivid word-pictures of the two largest glaciers in the world, and of other natural sights and scenes. She also spoke of the interest manifested in mission work there. Miss Stuart is a graceful and magnetic speaker, and held the closest attention of her hearers from start to finish.—[Richmond Times Dispatch.

Mr. R. D. Rodgers, for many years employed at Smoot & Co's. lumber yard, has gone to Cumberland, Md., where he will reside in future.

Miss Mary Houstoun is visiting Miss Alice Crawford at her home, on Seminary Hill.

Mr. C. C. Carlin and Mr. J. F. Ryan, congressional candidates, attended the sale of the personal property of the late Col. R. H. Dulany, near Upperville yesterday, and met a large number of voters.

Mr. George McBurney, now of Washington, was in this city today and was greeted by his many friends here.

Mr. R. Lindsey Gordon was in this city today looking after his congressional interests.

Judge C. E. Nicol was in this city today and seems to be confident of his election to Congress. He says the vote he will receive in Alexandria city and county, Fairfax, Prince William, Loudoun and Fauquier will certainly elect him.

Mr. M. Allan Nalls left today for a visit to the Jamestown Exposition.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett and Miss Kittie Barrett left last night for Norfolk to attend the opening of the Exposition and will then go to Cape Henry, Virginia where they will spend the summer. Mr. and Mrs. W. Rathbone Smith and Miss Lila Barrett will join them in a few weeks.

Councilman F. C. Spinks and Mr. Charles Blondheim left today to visit the Jamestown Exposition.

Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale, recently appointed pastor of Trinity Church, was on Tuesday evening tendered a reception by the congregation. An address of welcome on behalf of the official board and church was delivered by Rev. F. S. Stokeley. Mr. Walter Pierpoint, president, on behalf of the Epworth League, and Mr. O. F. Baggett, on behalf of the Sunday School delivered addresses. An address of welcome on behalf of the junior league was made by Miss Elizabeth Ramey. The exercises were concluded with an address by Rev. Mr. Van Arsdale. During the evening several musical selections were rendered in excellent style.

Rev. Father Sullivan delivered an interesting address before the Knights of Columbus at St. Mary's hall last night.

Rebeccas' Entertainment.

There was a large and appreciative audience to hear the excellent programme of the Lodge of Samarian Rebeccas' entertainment last night at I. O. O. F. Hall, for the benefit of the Orphans' Home, located at Lynchburg. The talent who took part and contributed their parts in the different selections were at their best, and those in attendance were delightfully entertained and profuse in their praise of the different productions. After the opening talk by Mrs. J. H. Mansfield, the programme began with a selection by Prof. Hilderbrand, of Baltimore, whose comic sayings, patent medicine remedies to kill and cure and his wooden-headed boy, were especially entertaining and kept a continued roar of laughter on the part of the audience. The piano solos by Miss Blanch Pulman and Vena Bittle were exceptionally well rendered and much applauded by the hearers. The violin solo by Mr. Jameson, who was recalled by encore, was fine. The recitations of Miss Ford, of Washington, and Mrs. P. F. Downey, of this city, were pleasant features of the evening, Miss Ford's selections being exceedingly fine in her specialty, and Mrs. Downey was past her mark, especially in reciting in her Scotch dialect. The address of Deputy Grand Master E. H. Easterling, of Washington, was the best portrayal of the great work of the Rebeccas and their work with the Odd Fellows that has been heard in this city. The piano selections on the Kingsbury Inner-Player by C. W. O'Meara were greatly enjoyed by all present.

Charge Dismissed.

A young man went to the station house early last night and applied for a warrant for the arrest of a woman living on north Payne street, charging her with harboring his wife and allowing improper conduct in her house. He also charged his wife with unbecoming conduct The case came up in the Police Court this morning, when the complainant reiterated his statement, the serious part of the charge, however, being unsupported by evidence. The woman of the house and the wife of the plaintiff denied the allegation, and the charge was dismissed.

Willoughby for Secretary.

The selection of William F. Willoughby as secretary of Porto Rico to succeed Regis H. Post, who has been made governor, is practically assured. Mr. Willoughby is now treasurer of the island, and he was recently elected president of the executive council. Mr. Willoughby was born in Alexandria, July 20, 1867, and is a son of the late W. W. Willoughby, who came here during the civil war. He has occupied a number of responsible positions under the government.

Deaths.

Andrew Ford, seventeen years old, son of Mr. Edward and Mrs. Emma Ford, died at his home, corner of Queen and Fairfax streets, last night.

Edith Gertrude, infant daughter of Mr. J. A. and Mrs. Addie L. Brown, died at her parents' home, 112 south Fayette street, yesterday evening.

Non Est Inventus.

As was stated in the Gazette, a warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of a young man charged with leading a young woman astray under a promise of marriage. The police have so far been unable to locate the accused, and it is believed that he has left the city.

The Cameron Club.

At Lee Camp hall on Monday evening, April 29th, at 8 o'clock, the Hon. John Barrett will deliver before the Cameron Club an address on American Diplomacy. A very limited number of club invitations have been issued, but this pleasure is extended to all who have subscribed to the lectures given this winter. Gladly will they be welcomed as guests, those who have heretofore manifested by their presence their interest in the club.

Dramatic Entertainment.

The Lyceum Dramatic Club will on Monday and Tuesday nights, April 29th and 30th, present a three act melodrama with prologue, entitled, "Crawford's Claim, or Nugget Nell," This play has several thrilling scenes and also abounds in comedy, and in the hands of this capable organization, should, as it undoubtedly will, be a decided success. Reserved seats for these performances can be had at Warfield's drug store.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Mrs. Virginia Simpson qualified as administratrix of her husband, the late George L. Simpson, and also as guardian of her son, French C. Simpson. The court appointed Messrs. H. K. Field, E. F. Price and G. W. Bontz, jr., appraises of the estate.

Mrs. Mary Sweeney qualified as administratrix of her husband, the late J. T. Sweeney.

"Preventics" will promptly check a cold or the Grippe when taken early or at the "sneeze stage" Preventics cure seated colds as well. Preventics are little candy cold cure tablets, and Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., will gladly mail you samples and a book on colds free, if you will write him. The samples prove their merit. LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weather has been mild and seasonable today.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. McK. Attcheson have returned from their wedding trip.

Alexandria Division, No. 1, A. O. H., will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's Hall.

Arrivals of fish at the corporation wharf continue light, and prices are firm at former prices.

The postoffice has received one and two cent stamps commemorative of the Jamestown Exposition. They will be on sale tomorrow.

Mr. C. W. Moore was struck on the face by a hammer wielded by a fellow-workman while at work in his machine shops yesterday and received a painful injury.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

CANDIDATES.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the democratic nomination for Congress from the Eighth congressional district, and in so doing desire to say that if chosen at the forthcoming primary it shall be my constant aim and endeavor to represent faithfully the interests of the entire district.

In the course of the campaign I shall endeavor to address and meet as many of the voters as possible in order that we may get better acquainted with each other. I earnestly solicit the support of my fellow democrats. Respectfully, ma21 tf C. C. CARLIN.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA:

In a card addressed "To the People of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia," and published in the press of the district and otherwise, I have heretofore announced my views on the questions of moment which now concern the public.

Adopting that card as a part of this announcement, I now formally announce myself a candidate for Congress from the Eighth congressional district of Virginia, subject to the action of the congressional primary to be held Wednesday, June 19th, 1907.

In the event that I shall be nominated and elected, it will be my earnest desire and ambition to be of service to my district, State and country, and to faithfully represent every interest, and to justify, by every exertion in my power, the confidence reposed in me and honor conferred on me by my fellow democrats. Respectfully,

C. E. NICOL.

Manassas, Va., April 4, 1907.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

Having determined to become a candidate for the democratic nomination for Congress from the Eighth Congressional District, I respectfully solicit the support of the democratic voters of the district at the primary election to be held June 19th, 1907. If the people of the district shall deem me worthy of the high honor of bearing the democratic flag in the contest for Congress it shall be the ambition of my life to prove worthy of their confidence and support. Respectfully,

OLD VIRGINIA HAMS.—Another envoice of those fine OLD VIRGINIA HAMS just received by J. C. MILBURN.

Alexandria Gazette.
THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 25 1907.

Trial of an Alleged Murderer.

The jury in the trial of Frank Miner, charged with the murder of James Aaron Tobey, at Vestal, near Binghamton, N. Y., October 25, by shooting and then setting fire to the house into which the body of Tobey was dragged after death, brought in a verdict yesterday of murder in the second degree. The jury was out 21 hours.

For four years prior to October last, Miner, a well-to-do farmer of Vestal, had been friendly with the wife of James A. Tobey, a neighbor. Tobey finally sued his wife for divorce, but on October 24 he and his wife made up their differences and agreed to live together in the future.

Mrs. Tobey wrote Miner a note telling him of this decision. That night the Tobey house was burned down and Tobey's body was found in the ruins terribly burned and bearing a charge of buckshot in his back. Miner was arrested and in his trunk was found a recently broken shotgun. Witnesses for the people testified that they saw Miner near the Tobey house the night of the fire with a gun.

The defense was an alibi, sworn to by Miner's parents, who said he was at home that night.

Wind Storm in Richmond.

Barton Heights, Chestnut Hill and Chelsea Hill, Richmond, were visited Wednesday night by a windstorm which played havoc with houses, trees and wires and caused great damage.

The wind was preceded by a violent rainstorm, with thunder and lightning. Chimneys tumbled and branches of trees flew. All the skylights of the smiths' shop of the locomotive works were blown in a few minutes after the storm began, and a little later a water main was broken and a section of the works was flooded.

In the meantime citizens of Chestnut Hill and Chelsea Hill were feeling the full force of the blast. A. E. Long, of the former place, was one of the heaviest losers. His home was nearly wrecked. The windows on the south side of Mr. Long's house were blown in and his chimneys were carried away. The buggy-house wood-house and chicken-house were all moved from their foundations and carried about 20 feet from where they originally stood. The fences around the place were blown down and carried away.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. It's nice even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Driven to Suicide.

Frank Walker, son of the late Frank Walker, a well-known Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad official, and grandson of Judge Roger A. Pryor, of New York, committed suicide in Charlottesville yesterday by taking strychnine. The poison was procured at a drug store, the young man saying that he wanted to kill a dog. The drug was taken at the residence of the late Judge Robertson, on Park street. After swallowing the poison the young man walked back into the parlor and announced to the assembled guests what he had done. His statement was not regarded seriously until he was taken with convulsions. He died shortly thereafter in great agony.

The young man left a note to his mother, who is ill in bed from the shock. Ill health was probably greatly responsible for the act. Walker recently underwent three severe operations.

Young Walker was in Richmond last week under the care of physicians. He suffered from an aggravated stomach trouble, for which he could find no relief except through the use of opiates.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklin's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists. 25c.

Past experience of thirty-three years as a pharmacist, undivided time and attention, the purest drugs, and all that pertains to a first class Pharmacy, will be at the command of my patrons.

I, therefore, respectfully solicit the patronage with which they were favored and confidently hope for that of my friends generally.

Prescriptions will receive my personal attention, and the utmost care and accuracy are assured. FRANK WARFIELD.
